

EXHIBIT 6

October 7, 2019

US District Judge
US District Court House
411 West 4th Street
Santa Ana, California 92701

Dear Sir or Madam

I object to the Settlement in In Re Collateral Protection Insurance Litigation, Case No., 8:17-ML-2797-AG-KES, regarding a Wells Fargo auto loan. My objection applies only to me. It is based on the fees, the insurance premiums, interest and additional interest accrued on my loan due to the duplicative CPI premiums and interests I was unlawfully required to pay and thereby, lost the ability to use the much needed funds elsewhere. I also experienced a vehicle repossession caused by CPI. This added to the financial, mental and familial anguish that I was forced to endure. Therefore, I should receive no less than $50,000.00 in compensation after all other costs and expenses (based on the terms of the settlement) have been satisfied.

Further information is stated below:

Brenda B. Starnes

Loan no. ending in [REDACTED] (see attached copy of notice)

CPI Class Action Settlement Tracking Number [REDACTED]

I look forward to your reply and resolution of this issue.

Sincerely

Brenda B. Starnes

Notice Administrator for U.S. District Court
P.O. Box 4990
Portland, OR 97208-4990

4840027109540
000 0003378 00000000 0001 0001 03378 INS: 0 0
BRENDA B STARNES
1001 DENTON DR
COLUMBIA SC 29203-3830

If you were charged for collateral protection insurance on a
Wells Fargo auto loan, you could receive a cash payment from a class action settlement.

The enclosed notice is being provided in connection with the following Wells Fargo auto loan:

Loan No. ending in [REDACTED]
Loan Date 09/02/2009
Borrower(s) BRENDA B STARNES
Vehicle 2006 TOYOTA CAMRY
VIN ending in [REDACTED]

CPI Class Action Settlement Tracking Number [REDACTED]

Questions? Call 1-877-641-8815 or email Info@WellsFargoCPISettlement.com.
PARA UNA NOTIFICACIÓN EN ESPAÑOL, VISITE NUESTRO SITIO DE INTERNET.

